

OR BOOKS

ASHLEY DAWSON Extinction. A RADICAL HISTORY

Extinction: A Radical History argues that the vanishing of species cannot be understood in isolation from a critique of our economic system. To achieve progress, we must transgress the boundaries between science, environmentalism and radical politics

DOUG HENWOOD My Turn. Hillary Clinton Targets the Presidency

Hillary Clinton is running for the presidency with a message of hope and change. But, as Doug Henwood makes clear in this concise, devastating indictment, little trust can be placed in her campaign promises.

DANIEL WILLIAMS Forsaken. The Persecution of Christians in Today's Middle East

Across the Middle East, Christian communities find themselves the victims of widening repression: massacres, expulsions, and brutally enforced restrictions on the right to worship have all become commonplace.

SCOTT MALCOMSON Splinternet. How Geopolitics and Commerce Are Fragmenting the World Wide Web

From its beginning the World Wide Web seemed both inherently singular and global. Today, Scott Malcomson contends in Splinternet, the Internet is cracking apart into discrete groups no longer willing, or able, to connect.

TOM SLEE What's Yours Is Mine. Against the Sharing Economy

In What's Yours Is Mine, Tom Slee argues that the new wave of companies known as the sharing economy, including tech giants Lyft, Airbnb, Taskrabbit, and Uber, is funded and steered by very old-school venture capitalists
